He furthered his dance training at UNC Greensboro taking up African, Ballet Improve, and Contemporary courses. He has made appearances on MTV's Taking the Stage, So You Think You Can Dance, and BET's The Mo'Nique Show. As a neo-contemporary performer, he's been able to teach his technique at UNC Greensboro, Guilford College, and the University of Elon. Sebastian plans to expand his skill and knowledge with anyone who cares to learn. Teaching as a student and learning as a professional is his mission statement.
